maintenance, repair or replacement of any of the general common elements therein or accessible therefrom, or for making emergency repairs therein necessary to prevent damage to the general or limited common elements or to another apartment unit or units.

16. An owner shall maintain and keep in repair the interior of his own apartment, including the fixtures thereof.
An owner shall also maintain all the plumbing, all electric lines, system serving his apartment unit, whether within or without impair the structural soundness or integrity of the building or impair any easement or inheritance. No owner shall in any way alter, modify, add to or otherwise perform any work whatever upon any of the common elements, save with written consent of the Board of Managers first obtained.

18. An owner shall not be deemed to own the undecorated and/or unfinished surfaces of the perimeter walls, ground floor and roof surrounding his apartment unit, nor shall such owner be deemed to own and shall maintain the inner decorated and/or finished surfaces of the perimeter and interior walls, floors, ceilings, doors, windows and such other elements consisting of paint, wall paper and other such finishing materials.

19. Each owner shall comply strictly with the provisions of this Declaration, the By-Laws and the decisions and resolutions of the Association adopted pursuant thereto as the same may be lawfully amended from time to time. Failure to comply with any of the same shall be grounds for an action to recover sums due for damages or injunctive relief or both, maintainable by the Managing Agent or Board of Managers on behalf of the owners or, in a proper case, by an aggrieved owner.

20. This Declaration shall not be revoked, nor shall any of the provisions herein be amended unless all of the owners of Condominium units, and all of the holders of any recorded mortgages or Deeds of Trust covering or affecting any or all condominium units unanimously consent and agree to such revocation or amendment by instrument (s) duly recorded.

21. The assessments made shall be based upon the cash requirements deemed to be such aggregate sum as the Managing Agent or Board of Managers of the Association shall from time to time determine is to be paid by all of the owners, including Declarant, to provide for the payment of all estimated expenses growing out of or connected with the maintenance and the operation of the general common elements, which sum may include, among other things, cost of management, taxes, assessments, fire insurance with extended coverage and vandalism and malicious mischief with endorsements attached, issued in the amount of the maximum replacement value of all of the condominium units, casualty and public liability and other lighting repairs, and renovations, garbage collections, wages, water charges, legal and accounting fees, management fees, expenses and liabilities incurred by the Managing Agent or Board of Managers under or by reason of expenses relating to the general common elements. The omission or failure of the Board to fix the assessment for any month shall not be deemed a waiver, modification or a release of the owners from the obligation to pay.

The Managing Agent or Board of Managers shall obtain and maintain at all times insurance of the type and kind provided hereinabove, and including for such other risks, of a similar or dissimilar nature, as are or shall hereafter customarily be covered with respect to other apartment or condominium building, fixtures, equipment and personal property, similar in construction, design and use, issued by responsible insurance companies authorized to do business in the State of Texas. The insurance shall be carried in blanket policy form naming the Association the insured, which policy or policies shall indentify the interest of each condominium unit owner and which shall provide for a standard, non-contributory mortgagee clause in favor of each first mortgagee. It shall also provide that it cannot be cancelled by either the insured or the insurance company until after ten days prior written notice to each first mortgagee. Said Managing Agent or Board of Managers shall, upon request of any first mortgagee, furnish a certified copy of such blanket policy and the separate certificate identifying the interest of the mortgagor. All policies of insurance shall provide that the insurance thereunder shall be invalidated or suspended only in respect to the interest of any particular owner guilty of a breach of warranty, act, omission, negligence or non-compliance of any provision of such policy, including payment of the insurance premium applicable to that owner's interest, or who permits or fails to prevent the happening of any event, whether occurring before or after a loss, which under the provisions of such policy would otherwise invalidate or suspend the entire policy, but the insurance under such policy, as to the interests of all other insured owners not guilty of any such act or omission, shall not be invalidated or suspended and shall remain in full force and effect. Determination of each mortgagee of a condominium unit. In addition, each owner shall be notified of such appraisal (s).

22. All owners shall be obligated to pay the estimated assessments imposed by the Board of Managers or Managing Agent of the Association to meet the common expenses. Except for insurance premiums, the assessments shall be made basically pro rata according to each owner's percentage interest in and to the general common elements, but not necessarily in such exact proportion if the Board of Managers deem such improper or unfair. Assessments for insurance premiums shall be based upon the proportion of the total premium(s) that the insurance carried on a condominium unit bears to total coverage. Assessments for the estimated common expenses, including insurance, shall be due monthly in advance on or before the fifth day of each month. Failure to pay by the fifteenth day of each month shall require the imposition and assessment of a late charge of $5.00. The Managing Agent or Board of Managers shall prepare and deliver, or mail, regularly at least every three months to each owner an itemized statement showing the various estimated or actual expenses for which the assessments are made.

Contribution for monthly assessments shall be prorated if the ownership of a condominium unit commences on a day other than on the first day of the month.

23. No owner may exempt himself from liability for his contribution towards the common expenses by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any of the general or common elements, or by abandonment of his apartment.

24. All sums assessed but unpaid for the share of common expenses chargeable to any condominium unit, including interest thereon at eight per cent per annum, shall constitute a lien on such unit superior (prior) to all other liens and encumbrances, except only for:

- (a) Tax and Special assessment liens in favor of any assessing unit and
- (b) All sums unpaid on a first mortgage or first deed of trust of record, including all unpaid

To evidence such lien the Board of Managers or Managing Agent may, but shall not be required to, prepare a written notice setting forth the amount of such unpaid indebtedness, the name of the owner of the condominium unit and a description of the condominium unit. Such a notice shall be signed by one of the Board of Managers or by the Managing Agent and may be recorded in the office of the Clerk and Recorder of Jefferson County, Texas. Such lien for the common expenses shall attach from the date of the failure of payment of the assessment.

Such lien may be enforced by foreclosure of the defaulting owner's condominium unit by the Association in like manner as a mortgage on real property upon the recording of a notice or claim thereof. In any such foreclosure, the owner shall be required to pay the costs and expenses of such proceedings, the costs and expenses for filing the notice or claim of lien and all reasonable attorney's fees. The owner shall also be required to pay to the Association a reasonable rental for the condominium unit during the period of foreclosure, and the Association shall be entitled to a receiver to collect the same. The Association shall have the power to bid in the condominium unit at foreclosure sale and to acquire and hold, lease, mortgage and convey same.

The amount of the common expenses assessed against each condominium unit shall also be a debt of the owner thereof at the time the assessment is made. Suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid common expenses shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing same.

Any encumbrancer holding a lien on a condominium unit may pay any unpaid common expense payable with respect to such unit, and upon such payment such encumbrancer shall have a lien on such unit for the amounts paid of the same rank as the lien of his encumbrance.

25. Upon the written request of any owner or any encumbrancer or prospective encumbrancer of a condominium unit, the Association, by its Managing Agent or Board of Managers, of the current monthly assessment and the date that such assessment becomes due, credit for advanced payments or for prepaid items, including but not limited to insurance premiums, which shall be conclusive upon the Association in favor of all persons who rely thereon in good faith. Unless such request for a statement of indebtedness shall be complied with within ten days, all unpaid common expenses which become due prior to the date of making of such request shall be subordinate to the lien of the person requesting such statement.

The Grantee of a unit shall be jointly and severally liable with the Grantor for all unpaid assessments against the latter for his proportionate share of the common expenses up to the time of the grant or conveyance, without prejudice to the Grantee's right to recover from the Grantor the amounts paid by the Grantee therefor, provided, however, that upon written request, any such prospective Grantee shall be entitled to a statement from the Managing Agent or Board of Managers, setting forth the amount of the unpaid assessments, if any, with respect to the subject unit, the amount of the current monthly assessment and the date that such assessment becomes due, credit for advanced payments or for prepaid items, including but not limited to insurance premiums, which shall be conclusive upon the Association. Unless such request for a statement of indebtedness shall be complied with within ten days of such request, then such Grantee shall not be liable for, nor shall the unit conveyed be subject to a lien for, any unpaid assessments against the subject unit.

Upon the sale or conveyance of an apartment, all assessments against a co-owner for his prorata share in the expenses as herein described and levied shall first be paid out of the sales price, or by the purchaser, in preference over any other assessments or charges of whatever nature except the following:

- (a) Assessments, liens and charges in favor of the State and any political subdivision thereof for taxes past due and unpaid on the apartment, and

26. Any owner shall have the right from time to time to mortgage or encumber his interest by deed of trust, mortgage or other security instrument. A first mortgage shall be one which has first and paramount priority under applicable law. The owner of a condominium unit may create a second mortgage on the following conditions: (1) That any such second mortgage shall always be subordinate to all of the terms, conditions, covenants, restrictions, uses, limitations, obligations, Lien for common expenses, and other payments created by this Declaration and by the By-Laws; (2) That the mortgagee under any second mortgage shall release, for the purpose of restoration of any improvements upon the mortgaged premises, all of his right, title and interest in and to the proceeds under all insurance policies upon said premises, which insurance policies were effected and placed upon the mortgaged premises by the Association. Such release shall be furnished forthwith by a second mortgage upon written request to the Association.

27. In the event any owner of a condominium unit shall wish to sell, lease or rent the same, and shall have received a bona fide offer therefor from a prospective purchaser or tenant, the remaining owners shall be given written notice thereof, together with an executed copy of such offer and the terms thereof. Such notice and copy shall be given to the Board of Managers for all of the owners. The remaining owners through the Board of Managers, or a person named by them, shall have the right to purchase or lease or rent the subject apartment upon the same terms and conditions as set forth in the offer therefor, provided written notice of such election to purchaser or lease is given to the selling or leasing owner, and a matching down payment or deposit is provided to the selling or leasing owner during the ten-day period immediately following the delivery of the notice of the bona fide offer and copy thereof to purchase or lease.

In the event any owner shall attempt to sell, rent, or lease his condominium unit without affording to the other owners the right of first refusal herein provided, such sale lessee. Possession of or residence in a condominium unit by any other person than the record owners, their lineal descendant relatives, continuing for a period of ten (10) days, shall be deemed, for this purpose, to constitute a leasing or renting of the condominium unit, whether or not any consideration has been paid therefor; and in such event, the Board of Managers may require the removal of such occupant (s), it being hereby agreed that the Board of Managers, in event of the possession of the condominium unit upon demand therefor of and from such occupant, with or without notice to the record owner (s) thereof; and in the event of failure to surrender such possession, the Board of Managers may institute its action in starting Forcible Entry and Detainer Proceedings for the possession of such unit, and have and retain, such possession until the record owner thereof, or his purchaser (in event of sale, all prerequisites of this plaintiff having been complied with) retakes physical possession of such premises. During any time when the Board of Managers shall have possession of such unit hereunder the record owner and all of his guests, licensees and invitees, shall be deemed to waive any claim for damages to person or property in or on the units.

The subleasing or subrenting of said interest shall be subject to the same limitations as are applicable to the leasing or renting thereof. The liability of the owner under these covenants shall continue, notwithstanding the fact that he may have leased or rented said interest as provided herein.

In no case shall the right of first refusal reserved herein affect the right of an owner to subject his interest in the project parcel to a trust deed, mortgage, or other security instrument.

The failure of or refusal by the Board of Managers to exercise the right to so purchase or lease shall not constitute or be deemed to be a waiver of such right to pur-any sale, lease or rental if made by Declarant at any time hereafter whether same be a "first sale or letting" or "resale or reletting" of an apartment unit. Declarant shall have the further right to use any apartment unit as office and sales area and display advertising signs at the premises at any time hereafter until units have been sold by Declarant.

The right of first refusal, as provided herein, shall extend and run from the date of execution of this Declaration for the period of the lives of the now living children of H. G. Nichols, whichever of said children shall live the longer, plus twenty-one years.

Except as is otherwise provided in paragraph 28, and except upon a transfer of title to a Public Trustee, or to a first mortgagee, each grantor of a condominium unit, upon transferring or conveying his interest, shall incorporate in such instrument of conveyance an agreement that the grantee carry out the provisions of the "right of first refusal" as provided in this paragraph.

28. In the event of any default on the part of any owner under any first mortgage which entitled the holder thereof to foreclose same, any sale under such foreclosure, including delivery of a deed to the first mortgage in lieu of such foreclosure of such condominium unit shall be thereupon and thereafter subject to the provisions of this Declaration and By-Laws.

If the purchaser following such foreclosure sale (or grantee under deed given in lieu of such foreclosure) shall be the then holder of the first mortgage, or its nominee, the said holder or nominee may thereafter sell and convey the condominium unit free and clear of the provisions of paragraph 27, but its grantee shall thereupon and thereafter be subject to all of the provisions thereof.

The transfer of a deceased joint tenant's interest to the surviving joint tenant or the transfer of a deceased's interest to a devisee by will or his heirs at law under intestacy laws shall not be subject to the provisions of paragraph 27.

If an owner of condominium unit can establish to the satisfaction of the Managing Agent or Board of Managers transfer shall not be subject to the provisions of paragraph 27.

29. Upon written request of any prospective transferee, purchaser, tenant or an existing or prospective mortgagee of any condominium unit, the Managing Agent or Board of Managers of the Association shall forthwith, or where time is specified, at the end of the time, issue a written and acknowledged certificate in recordable form, evidencing that:

(a) With respect to a proposed lease or sale under paragraph 27, that proper notice was given by the selling or leasing owner and that the remaining owners did not elect to exercise their option to purchase or lease;

(b) With respect to a deed to a first mortgagee or its nominee in lieu of foreclosure, and a deed from such first mortgagee or its nominee, pursuant to paragraph 28, that the deeds were in fact given in lieu of foreclosure and were not subject to the provisions of paragraph 27;

(c) With respect to any contemplated transfer which is not in fact a sale or lease, that the transfer is not or will not be subject to the provisions of paragraph 27.

Such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the facts contained therein.

30. This Declaration hereby makes mandatory the irrevocable appointment of an attorney-in-fact to deal with the property upon its destruction or obsolescence.

Title to any condominium unit is declared and expressly made subject to the terms and conditions hereof, and acceptance by any grantee of a deed from the Declarant or from any owner shall constitute appointment of the attorney-in-fact herein provided. All of the owners irrevocably constitute and appoint the WESTCHESTER TOWNHOUSES, FIFTH SECTION, CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, a non-profit association, or its sucin fact, the Association, by its President and Secretary, shall have full and complete authorization, right and power to make, execute and deliver any contract, deed or any other instrument with respect to the interest of a condominium unit owner which are necessary and appropriate to exercise the powers herein granted. Repair and reconstruction of the improvement(s) as used in the succeeding subparagraphs means restoring the improvement(s) to substantially the same conditions in which it existed prior to the damage, with each unit and the general and limited common elements having the same vertical and horizontal boundaries as before. The proceeds of any insurance collected shall be made available to the Association for the purpose of repair, restoration or replacements unless the owners and all first mortgagees agree not to rebuild in accordance with the provisions set forth hereinafter.

- (a) In the event of damage or destruction due to fire or other disaster, the insurance proceeds, if sufficient to reconstruct the improvements(s), shall be applied by the Association, as attorney-in-fact, to such reconstruction, and the improvement(s) shall be promptly repaired and reconstructed.
- (b) If the insurance proceeds are insufficient to repair and reconstruct the improvement(s), and if such damage is not more than fifty per cent of all of the general common elements, not including land, such damage or destruction shall be promptly repaired and reconstructed by the Association, as attorney-in-fact, using the proceeds of insurance and the proceeds of an assessment to be made against all of the owners and their condominium units. Such deficiency assessment shall be a common expense made pro rata according to each owner's percentage interest in and to the general common elements and shall be due and payable within thirty days after written notice thereof. The Association shall have the authority to cause the repair or restoration of the improvements using all of the insurance proceeds for such purpose notwithstanding the failure of an owner to pay the assessment. The assessment provided for herein shall be a debt of each owner, and a lien on his condominium unit and may be enforced and collected as it provided in paragraph 24. In addition thereto, the Association, as attorney-in-fact, shall have the absolute right and power to sell the condominium unit of any owner refusing or failing to pay such deficiency assessment within the time provided, and if not so paid, the Association shall cause to be recorded a notice that the condominium unit of the delinquent owner shall be sold by the Association. The proceeds derived from the sale of such condominium unit shall be used and disbursed by the Association, as attorney-in-fact, in the following order:

- (1) For payment of the balance of the lien of any first mortgage;
- (2) For payment of taxes and special assessments liens in favor of any assessing entity;
- (3) For payment of unpaid common expenses;
- (4) For payment of junior liens and encumbrances in the order of and to the extent of their priority; and

- (5) The balance remaining, if any, shall be paid to the condominium unit owner.

(c) If more than fifty percent of all of the general common elements, not including land, are destroyed or damaged, and if the owners representing an aggregate ownership interest of seven condominium units, or more, do not volun-
